Saturday 16:30h English Library

The British capital is not only a hub of literature, culture and the arts in general, London has also always featured in literary texts. When it does it is not just a background or a setting, it becomes a character, and sometimes a story couldn't be set anywhere else than in London because it is about London. Join Dr Michael Heinze on a trip through ages and genres to explore this fascinating city.
